

AREA OF CONCENTRATION IN NATIVE AMERICAN STUDIES
MAJOR WORKSHEET 2005-2007

Students wishing to pursue this area of concentration must complete an application available at the following website: http://www.morris.umn.edu/services/acad_affairs/aavarious.html#areaconcentration. Attach the worksheet below to the application for Area of Concentration. Required signatures must be provided on the Area of Concentration form.

Objectives – Native American Studies area of concentration is designed to introduce students to a range of information about Native American cultures. Students will learn about Native American history, literature and other creative endeavors, cultures, and policies through courses that encourage critical thinking and the synthesis and communication of ideas. The curriculum emphasizes the role of the student as an active learner and encourages close relationships between students and faculty. Students develop a coherent program of study in consultation with their major advisor. Grades of D may not be used to meet the major requirements.
