

University of Minnesota, Morris
Teacher Education Alumni Conference

Teaching and Learning Here, There, and Everywhere

Friday, September 28, 2007 ~ 11am - 5pm

11 am ~ 12:30 pm | Registration & Buffet Lunch

UMM Student Center

12:30-1:30 pm | Keynote Speaker

Michael Smart, 2007 Minnesota Teacher of the Year

Mike is a graduate of Harvard University (1980-84) earning an AB in Economics. He attended Stockholm University, (1984-85) as a Graduate Scholar in Social Studies. In 2003 Mike earned a MA in Education from the University of Minnesota. During the past 25 years, Mike has worked with global languages in the public and private sectors including non-profits. Mike has worked with Intermediate District 287 as a consultant and teacher for more than 15 years. He currently teaches in a District 287 Japanese program located at the Robbinsdale Armstrong High School.

2-2:45 pm and 3-3:45 pm

Break-out Sessions Speakers and Topics:

Sheila Flatau, UMM Class of 1996,
UMM Social Studies Methods Instructor
Creating a Classroom Learning Community

Carol Marxen, UMM Associate Professor
David Ellis, Fergus Falls Teacher
Prairie Science: Outdoor Learning

Riley DuBois, UMM Class of 2000,
St. Michael Elementary Dean of Students
Teaching Beyond Minnesota's Borders: Presentation & Discussion

Michael Smart, District 287 Teacher
Distance Education

3:45~5 pm | Education Tour and Dessert

For More Information Please Contact

Gwen Rudney
320-589-6411 or rudneygl@morris.umn.edu

Jana Koehler
320-589-6404 or koehlerj@morris.umn.edu

Conference Registration: $30

Please send payment to:
UMM Education Office, 600 East 4th Street,
Morris MN 56267