

Short Paper Guidelines

Take the point of view of a manager of a firm. You see a moral issue that your firm needs to address. You realize that there various options that your firm can take on this issue, so you need to be as persuasive as possible in marshalling good reasons for what you believe the firm needs to do.

1. Approve topic with instructor.
2. Describe in detail the moral issue you believe needs to be addressed.
3. Relate all relevant facts of the situation to the extent to which they are known.
4. Survey all available options .
5. Give good general moral reasons for the option you choose.