~~ENGL 3158—Milton (HUM)~~

~~(4.0 cr; Prereq 1131, two from 2201, 2202, 2211, or 2212)~~

~~Concentrating on Paradise Lost but also reading some of John Milton's other poetry and prose tracts, students will study the works of Milton, with particular attention to their political and religious context. Course material also includes some readings from earlier authors (such as Augustine) who influenced Milton's view of history and theology.~~

Rationale (see instructions):

Course to be replaced by one that includes more than Milton and better reflects both student and professor interests.

Course Revision #5

Give complete UMM catalog entry (deletions in strikethru font, additions underlined)(see instructions)

ENGL 3163 - CE: Life in a Medieval City: Literature/Culture in York, 700-1500 (~~HIST~~ HUM; 4 cr; Prereq-1131, two from 2201, 2202, 2211, 2212 or #)

Travel to York, England, to study the literature and history of the city from Anglo-Saxon times to the end of the Middle Ages. Focus on the role that York played as the second city of medieval England, emphasizing the diverse cultural influences on the city. Day trips to historically significant sites in the vicinity of York. (~~Students who have taken Hist 3104 will not receive credit for this course.~~)

Rationale (see instructions):

The course was originally co-taught with a history faculty member no longer at UMM. The focus of the course will shift slightly more now to literature, and HUM seems then the more suitable GER. Hist 3104 is no longer offered, so students cannot also enroll in it.
