Probation and Suspension

Students who do not earn a cumulative or term GPA of 2.00 are placed on probation. Students are placed on academic probation if either the term GPA or the cumulative GPA falls below 2.00. Students on probation remain eligible for financial aid. Students whose term GPA is less than 2.00 for two consecutive terms AND whose cumulative GPA falls below 2.00 are suspended.

[Above is the statement of probation and suspension policy, with the suspension consequences moved up from under Suspension, below to make students more aware of the consequences of continued low GPA. Below is the revised Probation implementation statement.]

Probation

Students are placed on Scholastic Committee probation if either the term GPA or the cumulative GPA falls below 2.00. A student remains on probation if the term GPA is below 2.00, whether or not the cumulative GPA is above 2.00. A hold is placed on the student’s record and they are sent probation letters from the Scholastic Committee including that include information about resources for improvement. Advisers receive copies of probation letters. Students on probation need their adviser’s signature on a registration form and must register in person. They will be allowed to register for a maximum of 14 credits and must meet with their adviser to discuss appropriate courses; following that meeting the adviser will contact the Registrar’s Office to release the probation hold. The adviser may approve registering for more than 14 credits; the approved maximum credits must be stated in the hold release. Students on probation return to good standing once their most recent term GPA and their cumulative GPA are 2.00.
