Brief summary or overview of reason for proposed new program or rationale for changes:	Credits required for the minor (28) are too many compared to other minors at UMM (average 20). In addition, the major only requires 40 credits, making the 28 credits for the minor too many.	Although we are changing the name of the minor, the goals and objectives of the minor will remain the same. Update cross-listed courses to give an accurate picture of classes offered in the minor in 2009-11. Add no S-N grading statement.
