| Assessment and Goals:   | Assessment: Students will give oral presentations, write three essays (the first and second of which are short response papers and the third of which is analytical) and may also be required to take a final exam. In addition to participating in guided excursions within Granada to such sites as La Alhambra, students will participate in guided excursions to the cities of Sevilla and Córdoba as well as others of historical importance along the Route of the Caliphate. Goals: Familiarize students with representative works of literature written by or about Spanish Jews and Muslims from the period of the middle ages to the periods of these peoples' from Spain (Jews in 1492 and Muslims in 1614) and enable them to comprehend these works in light of their socio-historical contexts. |
