

INTERLIBRARY LOAN (ILL)

If you cannot find the book, video, DVD, CD or journal article you need at UMM, you can request it through Interlibrary Loan (also known as ILL). There are some limitations on what items can be ordered including DVDs and CDs released in the last six months. There are a number of ways to request items through ILL depending on with which catalog you are working.

The standard delivery time for ILL materials is 7-10 working days. Items may come in more quickly or more slowly depending on how easily accessible the item is. It is crucial when preparing to write a research paper that you allow yourself sufficient time to request materials through ILL. If you are interested in calculating how long a project will take you, check out the assignment calculator on the library's student services page (<http://www.morris.umn.edu/library/studentservices.php>).

Notice: Warning Concerning Copyright Restrictions
NOTE: You must read and acknowledge the following statement before submitting Journal/Article requests.

The Copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or other reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for or later uses a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use", that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.

I have read the above statement and agree to abide by its restrictions.

Databases

If a journal article is not available in full text from a database, and the library doesn't have a paper subscription, you will need to request the article through ILL. Click on the “Find It” button.

The “Find It” button links you to a page indicating where the article is available. In this case, the library does not have a print subscription and only the abstract is available on line. Therefore, the article must be requested through ILL.

To continue the process, click the “Go” icon. The request form will be filled in with the citation information.
